Cardoza in deal to sell Cobblers

BY LAWRENCE JOHN
lawrencejohn@hpnorthants.co.uk

Northampton Town is being sold to an Indian consortium.

Club Chairman David Cardoza has confirmed he has signed a Heads of Terms agreement with a party interested in buying his controlling share in the club.

The contracts are with the lawyers of the respective parties and are now being worked through.

Mr Cardoza said: "We have been looking for investment for a while. It had been on the basis of 50-50 and we were expecting this to be 50-50 but they wanted to take control of everything.

"I would not be selling the football club unless I was confident it was going to be the right people. They (the consortium) will not only be buying the club but the land around the stadium which can be used for redevelopment.

"This is something positive for the football club and a terrific deal for Northampton Town as we have never been able to take it to the level we wanted. These are people who want to invest in football and they are interested in the redevelopment including the hotel and complex centre.

"This is a very positive move for Northampton and I am sure the fans over time will be delighted."

"I would like to apologise we haven't been able to say as much as we would have liked recently, a lot has been going on and it was very difficult to update supporters."

Leader of Northampton Borough Council, Mary Markham, said it would be 'urgently' seeking a meeting with the new owners to discuss an outstanding £12 million loan agreement with the Cobblers.

TWITTER: Fans were caught out by the surprise announcement of the club sale yesterday to a group of businessmen of Indian heritage

Editor's Letter

Don't call me a legend, I can't forgive you for that I'm starting to find Father's Day a bit embarrassing.

I'm not complaining about breakfast in bed and the fact that little gifts are coming my way, or my cards.

All the nice thoughts are great.

But I can't help feeling that the kids, in fact everyone, is being put under more pressure to spend money on it every year.

It's going the way of Mother's Day only worse. At least the hype surrounding mums is justified - they keep our lives on track. The hype surrounding dads is dubious at best.

The associated seasonal marketing deluge has been pretty cringey.

McDonalds, which has won my custom on many occasions with its uncanny ability to target my weaknesses would have you believe - despite everything they know about my greed and sweet tooth - that I am a "legend" and therefore worthy of one of their Chicken Legend sandwiches on Father's Day.

If I acquired superpowers I would still want to be plain old dad to my children although the world called me Lycron

Even I winced at that when I saw the advert on TV. The whole point of me, to my children, is that I am not a legend.

I am everyday. I am mundane. If I acquire superpowers I would still want to be plain old dad to them, although the rest of the world would know me as Lycron.

There are four separate definitions of what being a dad means to me and they belong to my four very different children.

So when, on the way to McDonalds for my Chicken Legend, someone suggested the Marks and Spencer cafe at the Sixfields food hall instead I didn't hesitate.

I may be a legend in McDonalds but in M&S I'm a customer and that suits me much better I think.

Mum disgusted by mouldy pud

BY NICHOLAS BIEBER

nicholas.bieber@northants.co.uk

A mother from Northampton was horrified when she found mould inside a pot of rice pudding she was about to feed to her one-year-old son.

Hannah Small, 22, had bought a selection of custard and rice pudding pots on offer at her local Sainsbury's supermarket in Sixfields, Northampton on June 6.

When she gave one of the pots – which cost 50p each – to her son a couple of days ago, it was 'absolutely fine'.

But when she opened another rice pudding pot for him on Wednesday, its contents left her feeling disgusted.

"When I opened it I just couldn't believe my eyes, it was covered in this layer of green mould," Hannah said.

"I just felt absolutely sick. Sick that I was about to give that to my one-year-old son."

After checking that the product was within its sell-by date Hannah, contacted makers Ambrosia to complain.

A spokesperson from Premier Foods – the manufacturer of Ambrosia – said: "We called Ms Small this morning (Friday) to apologise for her unfortunate experience and arrange for a courier to collect the product today so that we can investigate.

"In line with our procedures, the product will be sent to an accredited laboratory for testing and we will share the results with Ms Small."

University toilets loos their identity

The University of Northampton has installed gender-neutral toilets on campus.

All existing single cubicle disabled toilets are now gender neutral.

The move has been taken following consultation with the LGBTQ Society and specific members of the student population who have visited the Students' Union at the University.

Victor Agboola, President of the Students' Union at the University, said the move comes at a time when there is a 'growing population of transgender students' who would 'feel more comfortable' using gender-neutral toilets.

Holding the line for women

Reporter Lawrence John finds out how Tonia Eales from Northampton is breaking down barriers in the world of engineering

A female engineer who has been with BT for 26 years hopes more women can follow her into what she calls a 'challenging but rewarding' career.

Tonia Eales, 42, from Northampton, joined BT as an engineering apprentice in 1989 and has worked her way up through the business to a position where she is now playing a leading role in making fibre broadband available to rural areas across Northamptonshire.

She's telling her story to mark last Tuesday's National Women in Engineering Day, an initiative celebrating the work women do in engineering, as well as showcasing the great engineering careers available for girls.

Tonia, Senior Project Manager with Openreach, BT's local network business said: "Joining BT really was the best decision I could have made

"At the time I was more interested in joining the RAF, but my dad pushed me towards BT as he saw it as a secure long-term career option with plenty of opportunity. With hindsight, I would have to say he was absolutely right and I wouldn't change a thing."

The early days of Tonia's four-year apprenticeship, a fast track programme leading to a permanent role as a technical officer, were spent working out of Euston Tower in London.

She said: "We would pretty much move around the business every two weeks, working for different departments and picking up new skills,

"It was hard work but great fun getting involved with outside broadcasts and some more unusual activities such as lift maintenance. It was a great way to gain experience whilst studying for a qualification in transmission communications at a London college."

TELECOMS TRAIL: Tonia Eales, Senior Project Manager with Openreach, with Openreach engineer Dave Lane

Halfway through her apprenticeship, Tonia decided to specialise in internal construction, an engineering role within BT that focusses on the equipment based in the telephone exchange buildings.

She said: "I certainly stuck out being the only girl in the country working in internal construction at that time. It didn't really bother me as I've always liked being a bit different, but I can honestly say I never had any problems. BT has always been very good to me and many of the people I worked with in those early days are now good friends."

Short spells followed in BT's product launch department as well as regulatory affairs, where Tonia was responsible for implementing the latest guidance from OFCOM throughout the company.

But when an opportunity to return to her engineering roots came up in 2010, Tonia jumped at the chance and was put in charge of BT's commercial rollout of fibre broadband across London and the East of England. This involved working with suppliers and contractors to organise the engineering works to make the new technology available to more than a million homes and businesses.

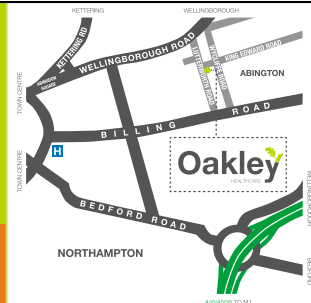

National Women in Engineering Day was set up by the Women's Engineering Society. Find out more at www.nwed.org.uk. For more information about the career opportunities at BT visit www.btplc.com/

Question time to help pick top cop

BY NICHOLAS BIEBER
nicholas.bieber@HPnorthants.co.uk

The final four candidates vying to be the next chief constable for Northants Police have been quizzed in a Question-Time style event.

BBC's Home Editor, Mark Easton, hosted the event, which saw the candidates grilled by police officers, last Thursday.

It lasted around two hours, and saw a wide variety of topics mentioned, including police numbers, performance management, staff wellbeing, special constables and cadets.

The final decision now lies with the Police and Crime Commissioner for Northants Police, Adam Simmonds, who has to decide who will replace the outgoing police constable, Adrian Lee, after his 30 years of service.

During and after the event, Mr Simmonds, and some members of the audience, took to Twitter to share their thoughts.

The PCC tweeted: "Over an hour now under the spotlight for @NorthantsPolice chief constable candidates...all still really honing their message," before summing up with: "What a great night!"

LINE UP: Sue Fish, Deputy Chief Constable of Nottinghamshire Police, Andy Frost, Temporary Deputy Chief Constable of Northamptonshire Police, BBC's Home Editor, Mark Easton, Simon O'Brien, Ex-Met Commander and Simon Edens, Deputy Chief Constable of Leicestershire Police

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Trevor Skidmore feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Northampton, Kettering, Wellingborough & Corby areas and Trevor is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.' So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Trevor a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Over 100 acts perform across town

SOUNDING OUT: One of the festival's acts at the Market Square

Celebrating its eighth year, Northampton Music Festival brought over 100 acts to the town across three days last weekend, placing the spotlight on the town's diverse and vast musical talent.

Before heading down to the festival, I was sceptical that such an ordinary place could have been hiding so many artists up its sleeve.

Northampton's music scene isn't immediately apparent – you can count all of its dedicated music venues on one hand. Yet when the festival came around, the variety and breadth of music was unquestionable, writes Ben Gray. See his full review on page 42.

Teenager filmed girl under attack

BY LAWRENCE JOHN
lawrence.john@nphnorthants.co.uk

A boy filmed a teenage girl being verbally abused, punched in the face with a knuckle duster and spat at in Northampton town centre.

The 16-year-old girl was assaulted between 4.30pm and 4.50pm on Saturday, June 13, in Abington Square.

The victim was standing at the bus stop near the Penny Whistle pub when she was approached by a group of teenage boys.

One of boys appeared to be filming her with his mobile phone while he was being verbally abusive towards her.

The girl ran after the boy down a nearby alleyway while he continued to record and film her.

She was then held by another boy while the suspect punched her in the face using a knuckle duster. A third boy spat at the victim.

The boy who held the victim is described by police as black, about 14-years-old and was wearing tracksuit style clothing.

Police described the boy who spat at the victim as mixed-race, about 14-years-old. He was also wearing tracksuit type clothing.

Northamptonshire Police are appealing for witnesses, or anyone with information about this attack, to call them on 101.

Alternatively, call Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Xmas tree

James Forster, press office at Santa Pod must have the Santa Pod Christmas Tree, a device which is used for starting every single race. ## BLOGGER OF THE WEEK: Californian adventures

Nicola Victoria Buck

This is Nicola's blog all the way from the USA, called The diary of a Northamptonshire Actress. You can read it every month on line at www.northampton-news-hp.co.uk

Plenty of California adventures this month.

Work took me on the West Coast Pacific Surfliner down to San Diego, which is approximately 120 miles south of Los Angeles.

The Pacific Surfliner is an enormous train run by AMTRAK and services an absolutely stunning journey down the mesmerising California Coast, its sunsets, surfers, palm trees, and dolphins the whole way.

Back in 1999, Northampton Festival for Performing Arts Awarded me first place for my rendition of Don't Put Your Daughter on the Stage for The Noel Coward Centenary Competition, would have seemed utterly surreal if I had known then that I would be auditioning using those same skills for a Rep Company close to the Mexico Border.

I guess no matter where life leads you, the things you know and connect with will always keep reaching out to you. All round great trip with only one horrifying moment: the close shave of an attempted mug-ging.

The Surfliner may be a beautiful mode of transportation but the location where you board, Union Station, is not the safest of places. So if you find yourself in downtown Los Angeles make sure you keep your Brit Wits about you.

I also had the pleasure of reconnecting with some old friends from the BAFTA Newcomers that first welcomed me to LA which is always exciting because of all the bustling ideas and new ventures.

The crucial selling point for all artists is the head shot. It may sound silly but it is really hard to get a head shot that truly captures what you look like but also what you can bring to performing a role.

I was lucky enough to squeeze in a shoot with the incredible Hayley Williams, www.HayleyWilliamsPhoto.com.

Such a wonderful experience, I'm currently working on a magazine style quick fire question show centred on hot topics of the day and lifestyle choices. It's definitely fun work.

GIVE ME SHELTER: North Gate Bus Station is 'inadequate'

Bus station a classic case of rushed decision making

I was at North Gate Bus Station the other day and once again the inadequacies of it were evident to me.

Unlike the old Greyfriars Station it could not shelter every bus user from the rain as many poor folk had to stand in the Drapery. Greyfriars may not have been a beautiful building but at least everyone had a place to sit down unlike the situation we have now.

The whole design and layout of North Gate Bus Station is a classic example of very poor and rushed decision making. Labour said there was not enough public consultation by the Conservative Administration at the Guildhall and perhaps had there been we might have got a much better bus station to the one we are now stuck with.

Equally I cannot see how the opening up of Abington Street has benefited the town centre. In fact, as predicted by Labour the motor car has triumphed over pedestrians.

The Conservative administration's decision to open up Abington Street to cars has left the Borough Council with a £6 million bill over a twenty year period".

Raise awareness of need for good palliative care

Many of your readers may have lost a loved one or cared for someone living with a terminal illness.

Marie Curie has been most closely associated with caring for people with terminal cancer, but as the UK's leading terminal illness charity we know that people with other diseases need the care and support provided by Marie Curie and other palliative care specialists.

We have just published a report which suggests that people living with a terminal illness other than cancer, such as heart failure, dementia, end stage liver disease and motor neurone disease, as well as conditions such as Parkinson's and acute stroke, are less likely to be offered or have access to palliative and end of life care services. Yet this could make a real difference, not only to them, but to their families and carers.

Many patients are missing out on the opportunity to get the care and support they need, simply because health professionals don't know who is responsible for providing this care and who could benefit. We want that to change.

We have written to medical and nurse directors across the UK asking them to do three simple things to improve care and support for patients and their families affected by terminal illness:

1. Make certain that all medical and nursing staff know how to contact palliative care teams
2. Ensure that information on palliative care is widely available
3. Increase access to palliative care for all those who could benefit. This includes people with all terminal illnesses, as well as people with multiple sclerosis, Parkinson's disease and strokes.

If your readers would like to help Marie Curie spread this message across Northamptonshire I would encourage them to visit mariecurie.org.uk/change.

Church cash to aid school

BY NICHOLAS BIEBER
Inicholas.bieber@hpnorthants.co.uk

A community church has made a generous £500 donation to a Northampton primary school which saw its playground destroyed by vandals.

The Northants Herald and Post reported last week how children at Rectory Farm Primary School were left upset after arriving at school on to find the play area wrecked.

Vandals had entered the schools grounds in the night, and crushed toys, stamped on plants, and wrecked artwork – all of which were scattered outside the reception classroom.

Parents were left furious by what happened, and joined the school in appealing for donations to help bring the play area back to life.

As a result, Rectory Farm Community Church – which is based in the school itself – stepped forward to get the appeal up and running with a £500 donation.

The church's priest, Margaret Johnson, said: "When we heard about what happened, we were horrified and very sad."

"It was devastating for everyone in the community, who all work so hard to make Rectory Farm a flourishing place."

"We hope the £500 will help."

BUILDING FUTURE: Louise Lally at the the University of Northampton's Arts Degree Show, which was visited by Travis Perkins representatives

Travis Perkins seals uni partnership

County firm Travis Perkins has sealed a partnership with the University of Northampton, in a move which will see students take on work experience placements at the firm.

The UK's leading timber and builders' merchant sealed the partnership this month, and celebrated the move by visiting the university's pre-view degree show.

The School of The Arts Degree show, which ran from June 12-21, showcased the work of final-year students at the university.

The work was on public display at Avenue Campus, and featured a range of disciplines, including art, design, fashion, graphic communication, product design, interior design, architectural technology, photographic practice and foundation art and design.

Travis Perkins hopes its partnership with the uni will one day see students work full-time at the firm.

Parklife for Disney man

BY LAWRENCE JOHN

lawrence.john@hpnorthants.co.uk

The new boss at Billing Aquadrome has revealed that Northampton was once considered as the site for Euro Disney with Billing the most likely location.

Nick Allen, pictured, worked for two years on the launch of the theme park on the outskirts of Paris and saw it successfully open its doors to 80,000 people in 2002 but says other locations were looked at for the attraction.

He said: "I understand that they seriously looked at other areas before deciding on the area of Marne la Vallee in France. Barcelona was one option but the city had just committed to the Olympics and Northampton was another because of its central location in the UK. And in the county only Billing would have offered enough space.

"But in the end it was considered too far from the main catchment of central Europe. Plus the Paris site was a former industrial area and attracted support from the French government.

"But all the reasons that Disney was interested in Northampton – the great location, the beautiful countryside, the good connections – still stand and I am really excited to be taking over the helm at Billing Aquadrome. It is a wonderful park."

"I have spent 40 years in the leisure industry and I want to transfer all the knowledge and experience I have gained into making Billing the best holiday park in the country.

"What I have learned is that a happy experience is all about attention to detail, delivering excellent levels of service and maintaining the highest standards in everything. You can't do that remotely so I now have a lodge on site at Billing Aquadrome which suits me perfectly."

County clamours

BY LAWRENCE JOHN

lawrence.john@hpnorthants.co.uk

Northamptonshire wants to host further stages of the Aviva Women's Tour.

The third stage of the tour started in Oundle on Saturday, finishing in Kettering, and the excitement generated from the event has left spectators and council officials in the county eager for more.

The crowds lined the route all the way into Kettering and hundreds waited for the riders on the Market Square where the finish line was located.

Leader of Kettering Borough Council, Cllr Russell Roberts said: "It has been a great day and what has been most pleasing is the event has brought the community together."

"It has brought different age groups together to enjoy the race. The feedback from the riders was they loved the course and the feedback from people was Kettering loved having the riders here."

"The event has been good on a number of levels as it has encouraged people to get out and about and support this sport."

"It has given a boost to the Women's Tour and hopefully

WHEEL POWER: Crossing the finishing line in Kettering will encourage more people to take up cycling.

"We have held a great stage today and we would love the tour to come back."

This 'please come back to Northamptonshire' was echoed by county cyclist Hannah Barnes, who rides for United Healthcare Pro Cycling.

She finished fourth on the Oundle to Kettering stage.

She said: "It was good and I was happy. I even got a second on one of the sprint stages. There were a lot of people out in the villages and the crowd became really noisy once we got into Kettering. There were lots of school children cheering in the crowd."

"Northamptonshire has held it twice so hopefully it will come back."

One of the cyclists taking part in her first professional Women's Tour race in the county was Australian Alexandra Manly, who rides for Orica AIS.

The Junior Road World Champion and UCI Junior Track World Champion in 2014 said: "It was really good and the crowds were amazing."

"I have never been here before as this is my first year as a professional cyclist. There was definitely a lot of interest with crowds along the route and the crowd at the finish line were the loudest on the tour so far. There were a lot of good vibes.

"Unfortunately, I have fallen off three times in two days. Today I came off in one of the feeding sections. It was not my fault as the rider in front of me came off."

The 2014 stage, which went from Oundle to Northampton and was the first time the Woman's Tour had called into the county, gave everyone a taste of what would come in 2015 and now they want more in 2016.

Students get chance to shine

Students and pupils from six of Northampton's academies will be competing in front of Olympic Gold medalist Denise Lewis OBE at an event described by Sky Sports as "one of the country's best school sports days".

The Northamptonshire academies taking part include Malcolm Arnold Academy, Cedar Road Primary School, The Arbours Primary Academy, Eastfield Academy, Briar Hill Primary School and Kings Heath Primary Academy. They will be competing on Wednesday at the David Ross Education Trust's Summer Cup against 1,500 children and young people at Grantham Meres Sports Stadium.

My bike's ready but can I do it?

"Yeah, that sounds like Vince," the guys at Pitsford Cycles said when I told them there are 22 pubs on the route of the Solstice 100 mountain bike race this weekend.

The event has been organised by Vince Major of mtbepics and starts and finishes at The Pomfret Arms - a bike friendly Northampton pub.

I mentioned this in Pitsford Cycles as I collected my bike from them on Monday.

An early evening practice ride was cut short when a thorn pierced my tyre last week and so in addition to needing my bike serviced, it also needed a new inner tube.

Pitsford Cycles, which is sponsoring Saturday's 100 mile event, obligingly took in my machine and managed to get it back to me sooner than expected.

Geoff, behind the counter at Pitsford, seemed a little worried for me that this was my first attempt at this distance.

He handed me a caffeine and isotonic gel and said: "If you get into trouble have this but don't have two or you won't sleep for a week."

They also picked up a couple of things on my bike that I had no idea needed attending to. My chain had stretched and the teeth on my gear sprockets had worn.

They adjusted my handlebars to take some pressure off my wrists and kitted me out with faster running tyres that are resistant to punctures.

I took the bike out for a spin not really expecting too much from the changes but the difference was amazing.

I was flying along and much more comfortable in my riding position.

H&P Editor Steve Scoles is taking part in Saturday's Solstice 100 mountain bike sportive

So now the machine is ready and it is literally only a matter of hours before I set off on my 100 mile adventure.

The route takes us out of Northampton and to the east of Bedford, where I used to live, via Sharnbrook where I used to go to school, via Chicksands where I have always promised myself I would go for a bike ride and then west through Bedfordshire until we are west of Milton Keynes and heading back to civilisation in progressive, Rose of the Shires (let yourself grow), Northamptonshire.

So far I have been averaging about ten miles an hour, burning about 1,000 calories an hour.

My plan is to do 15 miles, interspersed with 10 minute breaks and a slightly longer lunch.

I am expecting not to finish although I haven't rationalised that fully. I think saddle soreness and the mountainous terrain of the south midlands might get to me.

Having said that, if I can possibly finish simply by grinding my way through the miles at whatever pace I can manage I will, so let's see what happens...

Six double bedroom family house in exclusive area of Wootton Fields

Wootton Fields
£575,000

Set within private woodland is this well proportioned six double bedroom detached family home.

Originally built by Alfred McAlpine Homes this exclusive cul-de-sac of only nine properties is situated on the outskirts of Wootton Fields. As you enter the property the light and airy entrance hall branches off to the refitted cloakroom, large lounge with bay window to the front aspect, dining room with sliding double glazed doors leading onto the rear garden, study which is currently being used as a snug and finally the large kitchen/breakfast room with built in appliances.

You will find the utility room and the sun-trap conservatory off the kitchen. To the first floor there's five double bedrooms, two of which have en-suite shower rooms and a refitted four piece modern family bathroom. Stairs rise to the master suite which is flooded with natural light through the four large Velux windows.

The bedroom has the benefit of a large dressing room, built in wardrobes and en-suite bathroom. Outside there's off road parking for multiple vehicles.

What Your Agent Has To Say

Online property auctions introduced

Locally owned estate agents, Your Move Hobin Roberts, now have an additional service to offer their clients – online property auctions.

With the expansion of services, the company now offer clients an online property auction service via the Modern Method of Auction.

Powered by iam-sold, voted best supplier of 2014 at the Estate Agency of the Year Awards, the Modern Method of Auction promotes iam-sold's revolutionary online auction system which allows its vendors to sell their properties quickly, for the maximum market price and without having to pay any agency sales fees.

Vendors set a minimum reserve price which allows them to be in complete control of the process and they can log onto the site and see how many watchers and bids their property is receiving, making the sales process completely transparent. This property auction service is available online 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Area manager Sam Throw says: "We are absolutely delighted to be able to offer this new auction service to our clients. This offers a quick and cost free option for vendors to sell their property in a fixed timescale, offering an effective alternative solution and we firmly believe that our clients will benefit from using the Modern Method of Auction."

For more information on our new auction service or how to sell your property through the Modern Method of auction, contact Your Move Hobin Roberts, 19 Bridge Street, Northampton NN1 1NH or call 01604 633272.

ADDED DIMENSION: Your Move aim to help you make the right move with their new service

Santa Pod set to burn rubber at Dragstalgia

BY LAWRENCE JOHN

lawrence.john@hpnorthants.co.uk

When it comes to fast, loud and spectacular motorsport, nothing tops drag racing.

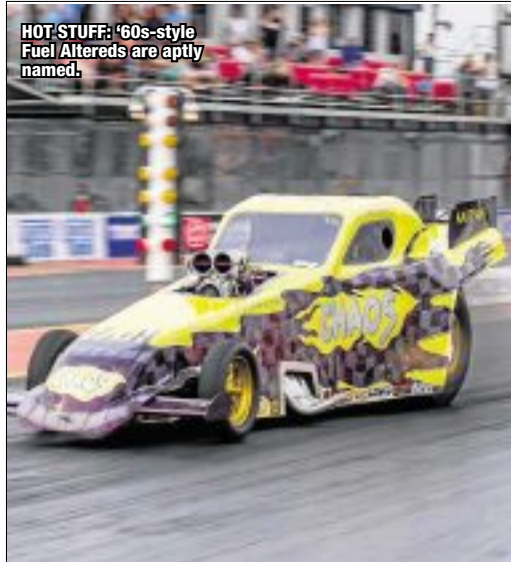

British drag racers have been burning up the quarter-mile now for more than 50 years and it reaches its annual zenith in a July celebration known as Santa Pod Raceway's Dragstalgia from July 10-12.

Nostalgia drag racing emerged in America in the 1980s and British racers soon caught the spirit.

Nostalgia-themed groups abound and nostalgia race-cars come in all shapes and sizes, from vintage American stockers through altered and roadsters to full-tilt dragsters and nitro funny cars, and there's a similar array of motorcycles too.

In 2011, Santa Pod Raceway launched its own tribute event to times past, Dragstalgia, a mid-summer bonanza of all things retro, and this year's fifth annual Dragstalgia celebration will bring a bygone era back to life next month.

Alongside almost 200 invited race teams, a host of Run What Ya Brung entries and ranks of Show & Shiners, there will be historic car displays, rock 'n' roll bands, and a fly-past by the Battle of Britain Memorial Flight – there's even a vintage hair-styling salon.

The National Street Rod Association's Blast From The Past brings a selection of iconic custom hot rods from around the country for static display and on-track parades. The added array of off-track attractions and entertainments makes this a classic weekend to remember.

2015's Dragstalgia roars into life over the weekend of July 10-12 at Santa Pod Raceway, near Wellingborough.

Acclaimed Carmen is full of passion

A passionate tale of lust, seduction and betrayal, no other opera boasts as popular a following as Bizet's Carmen.

Enjoy the English National Opera's acclaimed production when it is broadcast live from the London Coliseum to The Castle Wellingborough on July 1 at 7.30pm.

Probably the most well-loved opera in the world, Carmen scandalised its earliest audiences with its raw depiction of lust in 19th century Seville. Set during the dying days of Franco's Spain, Calixto Bieito's production of this must-see opera is a full-on battle of the sexes. Tickets £15 (£13.50) and can be purchased by calling the Box Office on 01933 270 007 or online at www.thecas-tle.org.uk.

This production contains some nudity and scenes of a sexual nature which may not be suitable for young audiences.

Northampton Music Fest

Sunday's town takeover gave off the greatest sense of a festival atmosphere, with live music lurking around every corner. Early in the afternoon, Sea Based Turtles blasted through a high-energy, funk-laden set on the Main Stage. Testament to the festival's variety, just thirty seconds away on the Abington Street stage Yoshe Watson kicked off a calm, acoustic set of honest, personal material that she shared the context of to a captivated crowd. Tucked away in a courtyard off of George Row hid the BBC Introducing stage, where I caught the tail-end of a fascinating set from experimental trio Quadra. The blaring speakers caused some of the intricacies of their music to be lost in noise, but their unique sound was reminiscent of Flying Lotus – musically, it was unexpected. This festival really has it all.

Staying put by the BBC Introducing stage for a couple of hours out of intrigue, I caught sets from electronic duo Lennox and rising grime artist Leo Robinson (above). A complete juxtaposition from one another.

Just across from that stage, All Saints was drawing to a close with a headline set from Paper Hawk.

The XJ elevates Jaguar's luxury to whole new level

Priced from £58,690 on-the-road, the XJ, Jaguar's all-aluminium luxury saloon, is more desirable than ever. Subtle changes to the exterior design, accentuated by full LED headlights, add to the XJ's already distinctive looks.

Materials such as semi-aniline leather and inlay veneers enhance an interior already considered the most luxurious in the segment, culminating in the new Autobiography model.

Matching this traditional craftsmanship is state-of-the-art technology, including a new infotainment system. InControl Touch Pro offers features such as door-to-door navigation and 1,300W Meridian digital audio system.

The driving experience is better than ever, thanks to a V6 diesel engine which offers more power and torque and less fuel consumption and CO2 emissions, and an electric power-assisted steering system that enhances Jaguar's reputation for unrivalled agility and responsiveness.

DELUXE DRIVE: The new Jaguar XJ has piled on the luxury features

The new XJ features a larger, more upright grille, while sculpted chrome blades in the outboard air intakes emphasise the car's mature, prestigious character.

The full LED headlights accentuate the 'quad lamp' design feature that Jaguar sporting sedans have made their own. They are further enhanced with active front steer and static bend lamp functions, and auto high beam assist. LED headlights also provide a colour temperature closer to that of daylight than Bi-Xenon lamps, improving visibility and driver comfort, and are also more energy-efficient. Twin 'J-Blade' daytime running lights are a unique feature to XJ, befitting its status in the Jaguar saloon car range. The white light instantly and seamlessly changes to orange when the direction indicator is operated.

The XJ's peerless interior design has been taken to the next level. So luxurious has it become that the outgoing Portfolio trim is now used for the Premium Luxury model. The new Portfolio gains quilted soft-grain leather seats with diamond stitching and embossed headrests, and figured ebony veneer.

The new Jaguar XJ range will consist of: XJ Luxury, XJ Premium Luxury, XJ Portfolio, XJ R-Sport, XJR, XJ Autobiography. The powertrain range will consist of: 300PS 3.0-litre V6 diesel automatic; 340PS 3.0-litre V6 petrol automatic; 510 and 550PS 5.0-litre V8 petrol automatic.

Hyundai i30

Take a look inside...

The Hyundai i30 delivers a polished performance in its updated guise, ushering in more efficient engines, a zippy Turbo model, a seven-speed dual-clutch transmission and some classy styling updates. Hyundai has come a long way very quickly, but it's hard not to be impressed by the maturity of this i30's execution.

The idea of a sporty Hyundai hatchback would have had us rolling in the aisles a few years back but we've seen sister company Kia debut the genuinely credible pro_ceed GT model, so it was about time Hyundai got with the programme.

The i30 Turbo does what it says on the tin, offering a 186PS turbo motor that will zip it to 62mph in 8 seconds and on to 136mph, so it's not really hot. You could probably dip your elbow in it and feed it to a baby. Hyundai trumpets its Nurburgring-developed suspension setup, and it also gets bigger wheels and tyres and more direct steering (2.78 turns lock-to-lock).

Of more relevance to the vast majority of i30 buyers are the revised petrol and diesel engines that make up the rest of the range.

Buyers will have a choice of two diesel options – a 1.6-litre engine available in either 110 or 136ps outputs. Those who prefer petrol can choose either a 1.4-litre 100PS unit or a 1.6-litre 120PS engine as well as the Turbo model.

The post-2012 i30 is a car that has matured a lot from the original i30 and it's a really assured piece of design.

The latest model tweaks the look a little with a few minor changes such as the slightly more assertive hexagonal grille. There are also some different alloy wheel designs in both 16 and 17-inch diameters and three additional body colours: Polar White, Orange Caramel and Jet Black.

The interior design is neat with plenty of metallic and silver painted finishes on display, the centre console not looking unlike that of contemporary Ford models with sprouting air vents.

While it's not possible for Hyundai to make the vaulting gains it has done to be where it is, the i30 shows that improving incrementally still puts it on collision course with the very best cars in its class.

JUBILATION: Muhammad Azharullah takes a wicket from the final ball as the Steelbacks beat Lancashire

Ripley urges Steelbacks to continue fine T20 displays

Northamptonshire Steelbacks head coach David Ripley hopes his side's good run in the NatWest T20 Blast can last as long as possible following their dramatic win over Lancashire Lightning.

The Steelbacks were pushed all the way by their opponents despite them still needing 63 off the final five overs as a sensational knock by James Faulkner threatened to snatch victory away from them.

The Australian was eventually dismissed off the final ball after a brilliant 73 off 45 deliveries that saw Northants just about defend the 169-5 that they had posted.

They got home by four runs as Muhammad

Azharullah took the wicket of Faulkner, caught and bowled.

After losing their first three games, they have now won three of their last four with bad light at Leicestershire denying them last Friday and are now fifth in the North Group.

Ripley said: "We weren't so good in our first game, in the next two we were good for half the games and since then we've played pretty well throughout the whole of the match."

"We've won three of them and came close to winning the other one so our job now is to keep that going as long as we can."

The county's T20 focus now turns to back-to-back away fixtures, against Worcestershire on Friday night and then Nottinghamshire on Saturday. The next home game isn't until the visit of Leicestershire on July 12.

"When those games come back-to-back, that's the time when you can really make a move on the table or it can really dent you," said Ripley who needs to steer his side to a top four finish to gain a quarter final spot.

"Two losses takes the wind out of you but two wins and you find yourself possibly sitting in the top two."

Ripley also praised Alex Wakely's character after the Northants captain contributed significantly to the win at the end of what has been a hectic week for him.

The 26-year-old made an unbeaten 36 and looked lively in the field despite having barely slept after becoming a father to a baby girl on Thursday.

Ripley said: "I thought Alex found it a little tough with the bat as he couldn't find a lot of fluency but as we saw he battled with himself."

"I thought he was brilliant in the field and I loved the way that he looked to take the pressure off the bowlers - he's got his arm round them and I thought his decision-making was very good."

Skaters to battle for Amsterdam trip at Radlands Plaza showdown

SKATEBOARDING

SKATE STARS: The Dew Tour is coming to Northampton

Amateur skaters from across the UK will gather in Northampton on Saturday in a bid to earn a coveted place at a European final.

The event, known as the Dew Tour Bootcamp, is being held at Radlands Plaza to unearth the 'next big skate talent' who can represent the UK at the European Dew Tour Am Series in Amsterdam.

Judged by a pro skate team, two winners will leave Northampton with a weekend pass to the Dutch capital in the bag, where they will compete against winners from across Europe on August 30.

There, skaters will be battling to win a VIP trip for themselves and a friend to Los Angeles where they will get to hang out and skate with the Dew Tour judges.

In addition to the skate competition the Dew Tour Bootcamp, backed by soft drink Mountain Dew, will include a variety of activities including on-the-spot prizeing, live DJs and demos from three of the Dew team's up and coming athletes, Keelan Dadd, Boo Johnson and Nick Tucker.

All three skaters are from the United States and boast major endorsement deals, with those in the know considering them to be at the top of their game. Tucker is set to star in the upcoming film-documentary We Are Blood.

Those wanting to take part can register at inside the Mountain Dew Marquee at Radlands Plaza from 10am but the competition is limited to just 75 places.

We face a huge test

BIG CHALLENGE: Jim Mallinder knows the road ahead looks tough in the 2015/16 European Champions Cup

SAINTS

Jim Mallinder says his Saints side face 'huge challenges' in Europe next season after they were grouped with Glasgow Warriors, Racing Metro and Scarlets in their Champions Cup pool.

The competition notoriously serves up difficult groups and this year has proved no different after last week's draw in Switzerland.

Glasgow are the new Pro 12 champions while big spending French outfit Racing Metro are familiar foes after beating Saints twice in the pool stage of last season's competition.

Welsh region Scarlets are also sure to provide a tough test and only the winners of the pool will be guaranteed a spot in the quarter finals. "You cannot expect any easy matches in the Champions Cup, especially when you are playing teams that are able to make the most of much bigger budgets," said director of rugby Mallinder. "We're facing some huge challenges next season."

"Glasgow have been there or thereabouts for a number of years, and were deserved champions of the Pro 12 last season."

"They have a strong culture in their squad and play some excellent rugby with the ability to attack from anywhere on the field, as we found out in January 2013."

"Of course Racing are no strangers after our two matches last season."

"They had a good squad then, but have spent millions of Euros to bring in some of the best players in the world, not least Dan Carter, who joins them after the World Cup."

"Their budget means that they can afford to have two international players in every position, and their team will be formidable, regardless of who starts."

"We also know that the game against the Scarlets will be tough, just like every big Anglo-Welsh clash. They have a lot of Welsh internationals in their squad and are producing some good young players as well."

"They are three tough opponents for us, but this is why we want to play top level rugby and we'll be relishing the challenge when the competition starts in November."

All three home pool matches are included in the club's 2015/16 season ticket package which are available to order now.

Feelgood factor is boosted by victory

CRICKET

Northamptonshire 246 & 46-2 beat Kent 140 & 151 by eight wickets

Northamptonshire captain Alex Wakely was full of praise for his side's bowlers after they inspired an eight-wicket thumping of Kent in the County Championship at Wantage Road.

This was Northants second win of the season in this competition and was also their first home victory in four-day cricket since their innings defeat of Glamorgan in August 2013.

Three of their bowling attack claimed five-wicket hauls as Muhammad Azharullah and Rory Kleinveldt combined to dismiss a frail Kent line-up for just 140 in their first innings by taking 5-31 and 5-41 respectively.

Ollie Stone then produced career-best bowling figures of 5-44 as part of a brilliant 10-over spell in the visitors' second innings as they were skittled for 151, giving Northants an easy target of 46 to chase down.

The win has put them fourth in the Division Two table for the time being and three victories in their last four games have left them in the mix for a quarter final place in the NatWest T20 Blast.

Captain Alex Wakely claims the mood around the camp is buoyant, saying: "Everything is pretty good around the club at the moment. People train harder, there are more smiles around the place and ultimately it's just more enjoyable."
